JEFF BRYAN NAMED FORT WORTH POLICE OFFICERS' AWARD FOUNDATION DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT

Jeff Bryan, retired Fort Worth police officer, was recently named Director of Development of the Fort Worth Police Officers' Award Foundation. As an officer, Mr. Bryan has spent a lifetime serving the citizens of Fort Worth.

"After 30 years of service with the Fort Worth Police Department, I'm excited about the opportunity to give back to officers, recognize their achievements, and honor their courageous service to both the citizens and city of Fort Worth," said Mr. Bryan.

The Fort Worth Police Officers' Award Foundation is a 501c3 non-profit organization founded in 1981. Since, its Board of Trustees made up of prominent Fort Worth leaders has carried out a mission that supports local police by recognizing and promoting excellence in performance.

"Jeff is a perfect fit for the development director position. Jeff brings a proven track record of success in this discipline and has a great relationship with the officers of the department and the Fort Worth community." said John Joyce, Foundation board president.

In his short time as director of development, Mr. Bryan has already displayed his ability, leading the Foundation in the successful Big Guns in Cowtown fundraiser this year, Joyce said.
